2016 Nominee Information and Application

Officer Mark "Z-Man" Zylawy Scholarship

Students (Grades 9, 10, 11, 12) residing in the Portland community are eligible to receive the Z-Man Scholarship.

The recipients will be recognized and honored for their proven ability to overcome life's obstacles and hardships.

Benefits

The Z-Man Scholarship Foundation strives to cover portions of tuition, student fees and TriMet passes for its recipients. Some costs such as books and uniforms may be the responsibility of the recipient. The details of each scholarship vary based on different arrangements with local schools and the decision of the Board of Directors. Each successful applicant's scholarship amount is determined at the sole discretion of the Board, and it not guaranteed to cover the applicant's full tuition of any particular school.

How the community and local business can help

Your donation helps students in need.

The Z-Man Scholarship program supports students with the focus to be successful in high school and the potential to achieve their goal of attending college. All donations will help fulfill the dreams of these young people.

Your contribution is a direct investment in a student in our community. It is also an investment in our future as a community.

Donors may choose to fund full or partial scholarships. This campaign has the potential to raise scholarship funds and to provide extensive mentoring to students.

Officer
Mark Y.
Zylawy
"Z Man"

Mark Y. Zylawy, "Z Man," a highly regarded Portland police officer, died January 27, 2008 in a traffic accident at the age of 40. He worked as a district officer in Northeast Portland for 17 years with a passion, dedication and enthusiasm. Officer Zylawy earned the respect of his fellow officers and community members by the way he lived his life – with the values of the Portland Police organization – integrity, compassion, accountability, respect, excellence and service.

Officer Zylawy was born in Versailles, France, and moved to Montana where he graduated from high school in 1986. He received a Bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice from Montana State University in 1990 and moved to Oregon the same year. He then became an officer with the Portland Police Bureau.

Officer Zylawy was recognized for his superior police service receiving 30 commendations, two unit citations, and the Medal of Valor from the Bureau. "Z Man" was a dedicated Field Training Officer. Officer Zylawy was an officer with a high moral and ethical standard and showed a high degree of dedication to his duty as a police officer while striving to improve the organization and the community where he worked. His service on a day-to-day basis in Northeast Portland, with compassion and respect, made a lasting and significant impact on the northeast community and its residents.
