Scholarship Guidelines

To receive “Talent Within” scholarship funds, winner must contact Z-Man Scholarship Foundation at 503-572-1187.

All student scholarship recipients understand the following:

- 1) Scholarship funds will be awarded for tuition of universities, colleges and other institutions of higher learning (“Higher Learning Institutions”). The executive board of the Z-Man Scholarship Foundation may consider and agree to provide scholarship funds for tuition at other types of learning institutions in the executive board’s sole discretion.
- 2) Scholarship funds are awarded solely for tuition at Higher Learning Institutions. Scholarship funds are not awarded for any other expenses, for example, housing, incidentals and other expenses of education.
- 3) Scholarship funds will be used no later than two years after the date of graduation from high school, unless deferred for military service.
- 4) A student scholarship recipient will provide a statement that indicates the tuition due from the Higher Learning Institution to the Z-Man Scholarship Foundation. The Z-Man Scholarship Foundation will deliver the scholarship funds directly to the Higher Learning Institution based on the tuition statement. If a student scholarship recipient withdraws from the Higher Learning Institution, then any unused scholarship funds will be returned to the Z-Man Scholarship Foundation.
- 5) Any requests for variation from the above guidelines must be presented to the executive board of the Z-Man Scholarship Foundation. The decisions of the executive board of the Z-Man Scholarship Foundation in granting scholarships and delivering scholarship funds are made in the executive board’s sole discretion.

The “Z-Man” Scholarship Foundation was established in honor of Officer Mark Zylawy and his dedication to duty as a police officer while striving to improve the organization and the community where he worked. The core mission of the Foundation is to provide students with access to additional educational opportunities and to instill in them a lifelong commitment to learning and community service so that each is prepared to live and serve as a responsible citizen
